But like a great many men, like Gen. Gibson, the most eloquent orator in the west son, the most eloquent orator in the west to day, he sometimes in heated talk uses the old idiomatic forms of the verb that his ancestors used. It isn't because he doesn't know better, but because of the force of habit in childhood. But if the Democratic party could canonize Jackson, they should say nothing about Logan.

In this connection it would be as well old lady of Cincinnati, tormerly a resident among the "F. F.
